MOB HANGS LEO FRANK
—POSSES OUTWITTED

Body Found Hanging From Tree—Sensational Case Comes to Tragic End—Search On for Gaily Men—Eight Auto Loads Participate in Killing.

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 17.—Leo M. Frank was lynched two miles outside Marietta early today.

Marietta was the home town of Mary Phagan, the little girl an Atlanta jury found Frank guilty of murdering.

A mob dragged him from the hospital on the Milledgeville prison farm just before midnight. Of all the armed guards on the farm, not one raised a hand to protect him.

By automobile the mob rushed their prisoner to the spot where they had chosen to kill him.

Of his last hours none but those who hanged him knew anything.

That he was dead was not even known until his body was found dangling from a tree a short distance off the highway into Marietta.

Wrenched by the rope which strangled him, the gash recently cut in his throat by William Green, the fellow convict who tried to murder him, had gaped open horribly. From the wound blood had gushed in torrents, staining his prison suit crimson.

The corpse was not touched by
